

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Adorned with cuts by Bewick. 12mo, cloth, uncut. London:
Pickering, 1833. $3.75
- 101 BEWICK. Fables of the Late Mr. Gay, with 68 cuts by John Bewick. 12mo, sheep. London, 1801. $2.50
- 102 BEWICK'S Vignettes or Tail Pieces. 4to, cloth, uncut. Newcastle-upon-Tyne: Printed by Edward Walker, Pilgrim street, 1827. $24.00

This copy is one of the following—now exceedingly rare:—“In 1827 a few copies of the tail pieces to the Histories of Quadrupeds and Birds were printed on quarto paper, without the letter-press, and from the improvements in printing and the exclusive care allowed to the cuts by the absence of the text, they were very superior to any of the other editions.” A copy is priced, in an English Catalogue, £10.10.

- 103 BEWICK WOOD-CUTS: Impressions of upwards of 2,000 wood blocks, engraved for the most part by Thomas and John Bewick, with an Introduction, a Descriptive Catalogue, etc., by T. Hugo. Finely engraved portrait of T. Bewick. Folio, cloth, gilt top, uncut edges. London, 1870. $21.00

In this volume will be found the engravings of a large number of the most celebrated works illustrated by these artists, and, the whole being arranged chronologically, show, in a marked degree, the progress made in wood engraving by these “Fathers of the Art.”

- 103½ BEZA (Th.) Jesu Christi D. N. Novum Testamentum, sine Novum Fœdus. Thick folio, old calf. 1582. $5.00

"We must not forget the services rendered to her country by Lady Charlotte Guest, whose Mabinogion is an inestimable treasure. There are the favorite topics of the most celebrated troubadours of mediæval Europe to be found in all their primitive beauty and simplicity; and, without any disparagement to Sir Thomas Mallory or Mr. Tennyson, few can have any notion of the primitive beauty of these old tales, till they read them in "The Mabinogion."—Athenæum.

- 764 MANUSCRIPT. Biblia Latina. Manuscript on Vellum of the TENTH CENTURY. 2 vols. Folio, half russia. Sec. X. $255.00
- Very rare MS. written in double columns in those characters usually termed Roman Minuscule, without any admixture of Gothic, but which one might be tempted, on account of their dimensions, to call large Roman Missal. The rubrics are sometimes in uncial letters, at others in rustic.

There are also several large initials. These two volumes are highly interesting as regards the text of the sacred books. They came from Rome, and apparently have never been collated with the care they deserve. They contain also several letters of St. Jerome.

The learned Father Vercellone has given a fac-simile of this manuscript in his "Variae Lectiones," published at Rome in 1860. He thus expresses his opinion respecting these two volumes:—"For its antiquity and purity of text, this manuscript is the second (in importance) amongst those in Rome, and ranks immediately after the famous codex of the Monastero Ostiense di S. Paolo."

This manuscript has been written by divers persons, and probably at successive periods, extending from the end of the tenth century to the end of the eleventh. The following is a list of the contents of these volumes, in which some parts of the Bible are not found: Vol. I, from Genesis (xii, 20) to the end of Ruth, with two letters of St. Jerome. Vol. II, from I Kings (vii, 20) to II Kings (xix, 19), then Job, Tobit, Judith, Esther, Esrah, Nehemiah, and Maccabees; after these follow a Legenda de Sancta Maria Virgine, and the Book of Proverbs, to chapter xxvi.

These volumes were purchased by auction at the sale of the reserved portion of the Libri Collection for £65. in London, July, 1862, and a complete description will be found in said catalogue.

765 MANUSCRIPT. Biblia Latina, Manuscript on Vellum. Consisting of the entire Bible and Concordance on the finest abortive Vellum, 794 pages, beautifully written in very minute and elegant character, with ornamental colored initials, and upward of 150 small MINIATURES in gold and colors, each executed within a large initial letter. Small 4to, old red morocco. Sec. XIV. (1350). $140.00

A beautiful manuscript in the finest state of preservation, and written on the thinnest vellum, in letters so neat and small, that each page is occupied by two columns of 56 lines each. Each of the miniatures represents some subject in the book of which it adorns the initial letter, and the grotesque element is almost entirely absent, which is a circumstance very unusual in the illuminated MSS. of the time.

766 MANUSCRIPT. Heures Gothique. A beautiful manuscript consisting of 286 pages of pure vellum, in the finest state of preservation, with 13 exquisite MINIATURES of full-page size, with elaborate ARABESQUE BORDERS, which enclose minor figures, grotesques, beasts, flowers, fruit, etc., also 8 other paintings of a still smaller size; all the capitals executed in gold and colors, sm. 4to, full morocco, gilt edges. Sec. XIV. $80.00

This entire work is in perfect condition; the colors of all the miniatures are perfectly bright and clear. Few Manuscripts exhibit such a lavish expenditure of gold as this one, every page glitters with it; altogether it is a very beautiful specimen of the Art of Illuminating.

- 767 MANUSCRIPT. Horae beate Marie Virginis. A beautifully written manuscript on vellum, with 5 large miniatures, and numerous colored initials. Thick small 4to, vellum. Sec. XV.

$21.00

This Book of Hours of the Holy Virgin is written in the dialect of Westphalia, about the middle of the Fifteenth Century, (1450). The miniatures which it contains are curious rather for the small number of Westphalia works thus ornamented than for their real merit; they are slightly rubbed, otherwise the entire book is in perfect condition.

778 MAXIMILIAN. Der Weiss Kunig, eine Erzehlung von dem Thatem Kaiser Maximilian des Ersten. THE WISE KING; illustrative of the learning, wisdom and adventures of the Emperor Maximilian, 237 large wood-cuts by Hans Burghmair, from the original old blocks. Folio, a superb copy in half red morocco, gilt top, uncut edges. Vienne, 1799. $42.00

There are 273 large cuts in this fine work; 92 contain Burghmair's mark, H. B. and one that of Schaufelein; they are executed in a very bold manner. A finer copy could not be met with.

779 MAXIMILIAN. Images de Saints et Saintes de la Famille de l'Empereur Maximilian I. 119 fine large wood-cuts, by various old engravers after designs by Hans Burgmaier. Folio, full bound in calf extra, antique, red edges. Vienne, 1799. $27.00

A magnificent copy, perfectly clean and spotless. For Symbolical and Sacred Art, this volume is particularly suggestive. Each noble Saint has his Coat of Arms introduced.

780 MAXIMILIAN. Triomphe de l'Empereur Maximilian I, en un suite de 135 planches gravées en bois, d'apres les des-seins de HANS BURGMAIR, avec une description par l'Empe-reur a sou Secretaire Treitzsaurwein. Oblong imperial folio, half morocco. Fine impressions of this wonderful series of wood-cuts, the text in French and German, printed from the original wood blocks of ca., A. D., 1530. Vienna, 1796. $42.00

This is one of the most magnificent and interesting monuments of the early Xylographic Art. The impressions are very fine.

870 NUREMBERG CHRONICLE. Schedel (H.) Chronicarum Liber, cu figuris et ymaginibus, ab initio mundi ad hauc usque temporis nostri calamitatem. With upwards of 2200 engravings on wood; clean, sound and perfect copy in every respect, with the supplement and all the blank leaves. Royal folio, in the original pigskin, with untrimmed edges. Nuremberge: Koberger, 1493. $110.00

This copy measures full $18\frac{1}{2} \times 13$ inches, with the edges strictly uncut, and is without doubt the largest copy ever offered for sale. A copy $18 \times 12\frac{1}{2}$ inches is priced by Bouton at \$450, and he says, "it is one of the largest ever offered for sale here." Another copy $18\frac{1}{4} \times 13$ inches is priced by Quaritch, in 1868, at £30, who says, "it is probably the finest and tallest copy ever offered."

EDITIO PRINCEPS.—This is a magnificent specimen, both of ancient printing and of ancient engraving. "If Koburger," says Dr. Dibdin, "had printed only this Chronicle, he would have done enough to place his name among the most distinguished of his typographical brethren." It has always been styled by way of distinction, the Nuremberg Chronicle, and scarcely any volume has been so celebrated. The engravings, which are upwards of 2200 in number, are in wood, and were executed by Michael Wolgemut, and Pleydenwurff, the former of whom was the master of Albert Dürer. In the Bibliotheca Spenceriana, it is minutely described; Dr. Dibdin has appropriated no less than twenty-six pages to this book alone.

CINCINNATI, O.

CINCINNATI'S BEGINNINGS: Being the Early History of the City and the Miami Purchase, from hitherto Unpublished Documents. By FRANCIS W. MILLER. Large 12mo. - - - - $1 75

The most important work yet published relating to the History of Cincinnati; it gives the early events in the settlement in the words of the settlers themselves, and explodes many of the old theories that have hitherto been looked upon as facts.

SIXTEEN SAVIOURS OR ONE? The Gospels not Brahmanic. By JOHN T. PERRY, of the Cincinnati Gazette. 12mo. Paper, 50 cents.
Cloth, - - - - - 75 cents.

"This work of Mr. Perry is one of vast and compressed erudition and victorious criticism, and is destined to be of permanent value.
It ought to be in every minister's library, on the table of every lover of truth, in the home of every workingman, and in the hands of all our youth. We do not know of another instance, in our day, where any member upon the editorial staff of the secular press has appeared in so handsome and triumphant a role against the popular and plausible scepticism of the age. It is a book for which Mr. Perry will have the thanks of the whole Christian world."—Cincinnati Commercial.

"The mass of information contained within the limits of this work is simply astonishing. It affords a treasury of reliable data and authorities upon this difficult subject which is invaluable; and, as the price of the book is very low, we trust it will be widely circulated."

—Herald and Presbyterian.
